C'VILLE WINS SECOND BALL GAME OVER MEMPHIS

The Caruthersville ball club, living up to its reputation as the best this section affords, took the second of a three-game series from the Memphis Goodbars team Sunday with considerable ease and in the debonair manner which makes this aggregation of diamond artists the favorites they usually are. Memphis was able to pull only two scores across the home plate and those not until the eighth inning, when they were kindly assisted in the act by a wild throw by Coltenberger from deep short, one of the two errors made during the entire game. Hughes, the Memphis center fielder, hit a single and arrived safely on first, when Marshall, the right field man, struck a fierce one into short. Coltenberger unfortunately threw the ball away, advancing Hughes to third and permitting Marshall a two-bagger. McCabe and Benham followed, going out at first on assists of Patterson, and Reitz singled, scoring both Hughes and Marshall.

The home team romped away with the honors by a score of five to these two the visitors put away. The game opened with a vim, Memphis being retired in the first after getting a man on third, and when Reiney's took the bats, business began to pick men took the bats, business began to pick up. Moore, first up, singled through Handwerker, the Goodbar third baseman, and went to second on the latter's bad and useless heave to first. After Quellmaiz struck out, Meatte drew a base on balls and advanced to second on a wild pitch. Moore taking third. Manuel then singled, scoring Moore and Meatte.

These first two were doubled in the next inning on singles by Meatte, Coltenberger and Manuel, and it looked like the game was to be a walk-away. But the Memphisians rallied in the third and a succession of goose eggs on both sides resulted, with some nifty stuff shown by each crew, until the eighth was reached. In the first half the visitors put over their first and only two scores and for a time it appeared that matters might tighten up considerably, and the fans began to sit up and take notice. And it was in the latter half in this frame that Caruthersville got its fifth and final score, singles by Meatte and Manuel and an error by Marshall putting it over the visitors were getting uncomfortably close to another run, with a man on third and the fans getting nervous, when Coltenberger speared a swift one—a neat and lucky catch with one hand—and retired the Goodbars and ended the game summarily.

Moxie Manuel's sure punches were the outstanding feature of the game, the hitting of Old Timer in pinches being the best seen here this year, and Scorekeeper Horner says some of the fans who have been knocking "Old Hook" will have to take off their hats to the gentleman. He also did some pretty work fielding off of second. Friend was always there when a fly came his way and in fact, everybody "played pretty." Patterson pitched an excellent game, walking only one man to Benham's three, and striking out six to his eight.

The visitors brought Marshall, their crack pitcher, along, but it is said he had pitched his arm off at a game a few days before and was in no condition to toss this time, hence he had to take right field while Benham held down the mound.

Following is the official score and the summary of points. It will be noted that the attendance was excellent, being far the best of any game yet this season, for the people ex-

WHY NOT GOVERNOR McCARTY?

From many nooks and crooks in Southeast Missouri you hear the name of Hon. Sterling H. McCarty mentioned as a strong link in the political chain of prospective candidates for Governor of Missouri.

He is an eminent jurist and a man who possesses knowledge that is of vital interest to the masses of this great commonwealth. At present he holds the honorable position of Circuit Judge of the 38th Judicial Circuit and has made a splendid record for law enforcement, equal rights to all and special privilege none.—East Prairie Eagle.

STATE FAIR PREMIUM LIST IS OUT

A copy of the 1919 State Fair Premium List has been received at the Hayti Herald office, announcing August 9-16 as the dates of the Fair and listing the premiums offered. It is a handsome book of 264 pages, printed in colors. Persons desiring them may secure them from Frank Baird, County Clerk of this county, or by dropping a postal card to E. G. Bylander, Secretary of Missouri State Fair, Sedalia.

Premiums offered for exhibits total $44,530, divided among eighteen departments and extended over a much wider range of classifications than in previous years. It is expected that the attractive premiums will bring more live stock, poultry and agricultural displays to the fair than ever before. The farm machinery and equipment displays will cover twenty acres. In addition, the United States Department of Agriculture will have an immense exhibit; and the War and Navy Departments will display war trophies captured from the Germans.

A "Victory Celebration and Peace Jubilee" is to be the key-note of the Fair, and will be staged with the first State-wide Reunion of Veterans of the World-war. Missouri will honor her fighting sons with one of the best state fairs ever given in the Middle West.

"The Battle of St. Mihiel," a spectacular sham battle and fireworks display participated in by 300 actors on an immense stage, is one of the biggest entertainment features. The performance is a faithful reproduction of the famous battle waged by the American troops in the St. Mihiel sector, produced under the personal direction of officers who saw the fighting on the front. Other amusement features include the usual horse racing, auto and polo, band music and ballet, night shows, free acts and vaudeville.

Mrs. S. J. McClain brought to this office this afternoon the first cotton blossom to be called to our attention this season. The blossom was quite red, which shows that it must have opened last night. Mrs. McClain is one of our oldest settlers, owns her own home in this city, and has a married son, Chas. Martin, still she desires to keep to herself where she has peace and quiet. During her hours she spends sometime with a small cotton crop as well as a good garden.

NOTHING DEFINITE REGARDING AUDIT

The lid is still on at the office of the Electric Light Plant so far as giving out any information concerning the audit, which has been in progress for the past six weeks. The auditor called at the plant this morning to seek an interview, if possible, but was told Mr. Allison, the auditor, who had been working at the plant for the past six weeks, was out of town and would not return until next week. President Couch is in New York this week, where he is supposed to be conferring with bond companies in regard to the erection of a central power plant. We met Mr. Grimes, the new manager for the local plant, and said to him: "If we were to ask you what you know about the audit of course you would say 'nothing' at which he smiled and nodded acquiescence. Of course, even if the audit is completed, the result cannot be given to the public until it has been given to Mr. Couch. The very mysterious fire which did not even set the office on fire, but set the books on fire in the fire-proof vault, charred edges and damaged them no doubt enough to make the audit a slower, more tedious process. It seems highly probable that a big shortage exists but until it is made public by the auditor or company nothing definite can be known. A telephone call to Kenneth today disclosed the fact that Mr. Rhinehart's whereabouts are unknown. Mrs. Rhinehart, it was said, was supposed to be in Flint, Michigan, but added our informant, "It is also said Mr. Rhinehart is not there."—Caruthersville Republican.

PEMISCOT COUNTY'S CASUALTIES SLIGHT

The State Historical Society of Missouri, with Floyd C. Shoemaker as secretary, at Columbia, has just compiled a war casualty list of the army, navy and marines for Pemiscot County. There were 1,597 men in service from this county including army, navy and the marines. The casualties are very small, comparatively with the numbers in the service. The total in each branch of the service being only 70. No deaths were reported as occurring in the navy. The list is as follows:

SOME FIGURES, THESE ARE

Over at Washington some of those experts who are masters of figures and who have a mind attuned to statistics, frequently did up queer things. One of this type has figured out that the total wealth of the United States is $200,000,000,000. Then he figures out the new wealth produced annually, which he terms "net income." This gets into dizzy figures, too. He estimates that last year the national wealth increased some $18,000,000,000, which he admits is going faster than the normal. Another Washington official points out that one of the best ways to conserve this national income in wealth is for individuals to buy War Savings Stamps.

TWO GAMES THIS WEEK

The announcement was made Sunday at the ball game by Secretary Harry Ridgley, of the Caruthersville Ball Association, that two games would be played this week, one on Friday, July 4th, with Campbell, and the other Sunday with Dyersburg club, a straight salaried team. Campbell expects to run a special to this city that day and bring a crowd of several hundred rooters, and from what we can gather, we judge they have a pretty stiff aggregation. Campbell refused a straight money proposition to come over Friday, but insisted on a 60-40 divvy, the winner to take the big end of the gate receipts. One may gather from this that they have considerable confidence in their own ability, else a sure-thing proposition would have looked better to them. Dyersburg is said to have an unusually strong club this year. Hy Fowlkes is pitching for the Tennessee town and Prothro, who formerly was on the Caruthersville team, is playing short for them, and these two alone, Ridgley says, will make more than half a team. It looks like there are two more mighty fine games in store for Caruthersville fans and no doubt they will have a good attendance on both of these dates.—Caruthersville Democrat.

Mrs. W. H. Ellis and Misses Lillian Ellison, Stella Dorris and Hattie Mae Argo motored to Caruthersville Friday.
